

Join the Geneva Climate March

November 28, 2015 (Saturday)

Assembly point: Place des Vingt-Deux-Cantons, 1201 Geneva (beside Gare Cornavin)

Starting at 13:00

This December, world leaders will meet in Paris to determine the future of our planet. We're uniting voices around the world to deliver one simple message:

Adopt a legally binding and enforceable global climate agreement that protects our planet and all its inhabitants, especially the poor and vulnerable communities.

In all major cities of the world, marches are being organized for Nov. 28 (Sat) and Nov. 29 (Sunday),

Let us march together with people from all faiths and walks of life and from different parts of the world to push for a strong climate agreement in Paris.

We have a moral responsibility to each other and to our children to act on climate change and justice now. This is our beautiful planet earth, our common home.

When the world speaks with one voice, our leaders have to listen.

For information on the interfaith contingent:

- St. John XXIII Parish: office@johnxxiii.ch; www.johnxxiii.ch
- Lutheran World Federation: